BRAITHWAITE – John Victor Maxwell. Canadian writer Max Braithwaite died Sunday, March 19, 1995 at his home in Brighton, Ontario. He was 83. After a long and prolific free-lance career that tapped virtually every market for writing in Canada, Mr. Braithwaite found a novelist’s voice in 1965 with Why Shoot the Teacher. A recollection of his first teaching job in a starved-out Saskatchewan farming community in the hungry 30s, Why Shoot later became a successful film of the same name. Two more books in Mr. Braithwaite's prairie trilogy followed: Never Sleep Three in a Bed (1969) and in 1971, The Night We Stole the Mountie's Car, which won Mr. Braithwaite the Stephen Leacock Medal for Humour in 1972. The popularity of Mr. Braithwaite's short, wry, and dusty recollections of the Depression era on the Canadian prairies marked a turning point in his career. It won him a large following of readers across Canada and, in June 1986, an honorary doctorate from the University of Calgary, where he donned academic robes to tell a graduating class of young teachers how much he had disliked their profession. Mr. Braithwaite sold his first article in 1937. He and a friend collaborated on a critique of Saskatchewan education called School Drought, and Maclean's Magazine published it. Mr. Braithwaite took his half of the $75 check and bought a used typewriter. His career advanced quickly after the Canadian navy transferred him from Saskatoon to Toronto in 1944. At HMCS York, where he served as head schoolmaster, he met C.J. Harris, editor of Liberty Magazine, and Scott Young, articles editor at Maclean's — men who turned out to be key professional contacts and lifelong friends. He emerged from the navy in 1945 a free-lance writer. Since then, he once wrote, I have made my living entirely from writing. No grants, no teaching, no writer-in-residence, nothing but writing. He wrote for magazines like Liberty and Maclean's, for CBC dramatic series like Buckingham Theatre and Ford Theatre, and later for CBC television. He returned to thousands of Canadian classrooms electronically as the author of Voices of the Wild, an educational series that ran for 17 years on CBC radio. In 1962, Voices of the Wild was published as Mr. Braithwaite's first book and a long series of textbooks, supplementary reading books and children's adventure series followed. In the later phase of his career, when he found the time and financial freedom to choose his own material, Mr. Braithwaite's brisk novels came to form a running commentary on Canadian life. He continued to write from his own experiences in the West, notably The Commodore's Barge is Alongside (1979) and All the Way Home (1986). But his own post-war life in Ontario also provided material for some of Mr. Braithwaite's best novels. A Privilege and a Pleasure (1973), about a sleepy Ontario town that is swept up in the social cyclones of the late '60s, reflects the years Mr. Braithwaite lived in Orangeville, raising a family of five children. Lusty Winter and McGruber's Folly are set in the cottage area of Muskoka, where Max and Aileen Braithwaite lived after the children were grown, converting a summer place on Brandy Lake into a year-round home. They moved from Port Carling to Brighton in 1989. Max Braithwaite was born in Nokomis, Saskatchewan, on December 7, 1911. He was the son of two Ontario natives, George Albert Warner Braithwaite and Marie Copeland. Max grew up in Nokomis, Prince Albert, and Saskatoon. In October 1935, he married Ida Margarete Aileen Treleaven, whom he met in the fall of 1934 when he took a teaching job in Fielding, Saskatchewan. This was by far the most important event of my life, he wrote later. Mr. Braithwaite is survived by his wife and their five children: Beryl Marie Hart of Warner Springs, California; Sharon Maxine Siamon of Toronto; Christopher Maxwell Braithwaite of West Glover, Vermont; Sylvia Braithwaite of Ottawa; and Colin Braithwaite of Toronto. He is also survived by 12 grandchildren and one great-grandchild; by his sister, Betty Smith, and by two brothers, Hubert and Basil Braithwaite.

DENNISS – Alfred “Alf” Wallace Denniss of Drake, SK, passed away peacefully at Lanigan Hospital on Friday, November 14, 2008 at the age of 80 years and five months. Alfred was born on June 7, 1928 to the late Clifford and Hattie Denniss, the youngest of nine children, seven girls and two boys. He grew up on the farm 12 3/4 miles N.E. of Nokomis, taking his schooling at Kutawagan School 1 1/4 miles North of his home. Apart from working in Toronto and Vancouver for four winters, he remained on the farm and farmed with his Dad. In the fall of 1952, Alfred’s Mum and Dad retired and moved into Nokomis. On October 25 of the same year, Alfred was married to Florence McConnell of Semans. Together they raised four children: two boys, Vernon and Gordon, and two girls, Colleen and Cheryl. The farm was home to the Denniss family for the next 43 years. Alfred committed his life to the Lord at an early age and along with his family, attended the Pentecostal Church at Semans for 19 years, and later, the Pentecostal Church in Lanigan from 1968 to his passing. Throughout the years he held various offices in both Semans and Lanigan churches including Deacon, Sunday school teacher, youth leader and Sunday school secretary-treasurer. Church was an important part of the family life and was seldom missed except for a good reason. One thing our family always looked forward to was the family camp. Each year, one week was set aside to take the kids, and later the grandkids, to this time of fun and fellowship. Many lasting friendships were gained through these special times. Since the children were now attending Nokomis School, it gave him the opportunity to serve on the school board, which he did as board member and board secretary for five years. In the summer of 1995, Alfred and Florence decided it was time to leave the farm and get on with their life. After careful consideration, the choice was made to live in Drake. With several events that took place over the years, they felt the Lord had led them in this direction. As a retirement hobby, Alfred decided to take up bicycle repairing under the name of ‘Country Cycle’, a business started by the late Mel Bartel a number of years before. Since he enjoyed meeting people, this gave Alfred the opportunity to meet people, which he never would have done otherwise. Alfred enjoyed bookkeeping and because of this was secretary-treasurer of the Richfarms Snow Plow Club for a number of years. He took an interest in carpenter work and spent many days and hours in the workshop. For a number of years, he was an active member of the Nokomis Farmer's Market. Alfred played several musical instruments including mouth organ, guitar and musical saw and along with his wife, provided many hours of entertainment at senior's homes and other community events. Alfred was predeceased by his parents Clifford and Hattie; brother Walter of Nokomis; five sisters, Florence Chute of Somme, Ethel Richmond of Kipling, Jean Latimer of Edmonton, Margaret Denniss of Toronto and an infant sister Dora; and three brothers-in-law, Donald Chute of Somme, Leonard Richmond of Kipling and Carson Latimer of Edmonton. GOLLNICK – Earl Gollnick died on Tuesday, October 7, 2003, at the Nipawin Hospital at the age of 93 years. Earl Gollnick was born to Albert and Agnes Gollnick at Radisson on July 9, 1910. He was the 4th of eight children. The family lived on different farms at Nokomis, Moose Range and Carrot River, settling down finally 4 miles south of Carrot River. The war years saw Earl's three brothers go off to war, but Earl stayed behind to care for ailing parents and the family farm. After the war, Earl obtained land in the Petaigan district and was farming there and trucking when he married Muriel Mitchell on August 9, 1962. Together Earl and Muriel lived in Carrot River and then Nipawin, working Muriel's family farm in the Forest Trail district. Earl enjoyed his life, always looking forward to next year's crop or another project he had in mind. He talked often of adventures while out hunting and truly enjoyed working outdoors. Earl even helped with the farm this past summer. But Earl's first priority was his family. Kerry and Lynda came along later in his life and never lacked for his attention, love and counsel. Earl lived a quiet life in many respects, but could always be counted on to dig in and help in whatever way he could. Even this last weekend while Earl and Muriel were visiting the children in Saskatoon, Earl helped Lynda build a set of sawhorses and Kerry with a fence. But, Earl was growing tired and less strong. His body no longer kept up with everything his mind wanted to do every day. So, like the good farmer he was, the crops were in the bin and his body decided it was time to go for it's final rest. Earl is survived by his wife, Muriel; his children Lynda (Mark) and Kerry (Audra); grandchildren, Zachary, Alexander, Quinn and Hayden. Earl will be especially missed by his elder sister Ethel and younger brother Johnny and everyone who knew of his friendly visits in all of his daily travels. HENDRY – Jim Hendry died at the Nokomis Health Centre on September 10, 2012. He was 85 years old. He was born to Charles and Florence Hendry on January 28, 1927 at Nokomis, the seventh of 12 children. Jim attended Newlands School and after Grade 8, the highest grade offered, he continued with correspondence classes at home for two years. Along with farm chores and home studies it was his job to run to the school every morning to light the fire and get the schoolhouse ready before the teacher and other students arrived for class. As a boy Jim had a curious and often mischievous nature. He became a hard-working, respected man who retained his curiosity and sense of humour. Jim was often called upon to help solve mechanical problems with vehicles and machinery. He had a keen interest in how things worked. Jim enjoyed making modifications and improvements to anything that wasn't working the way he thought it should work. He could repair most things when they broke, often making them better than new. At 16 he began working as a mechanic for his father at Hendry's Western Service Station. At the age of 24 he purchased a truck and began hauling cars from Windsor, Ontario to Saskatchewan and Alberta. It was his hope that some day the long hours and hard work would pay off and he would be able to own his own farm. He met Anne Harder when she came to Nokomis to work as a nurse's aide at the hospital. They were married on March 11, 1955. Jim's dream of farming became a reality with the purchase of the Alf Skippon farm (NW16-30-21-2) in 1955. The young couple spent summers on the farm and moved back into town for the winter. In the spring of 1958, with the arrival of electricity in the rural areas, they made the farm their permanent home. Daughters Janice, Myrna, Linda, and Heather grew up on the family farm. Jim enjoyed his life as a farmer. He commented that when you like your work it isn't really work – it's fun. He did indeed have many hours of fun clearing bush, leveling hills and burying rockpiles to improve their land. He was always willing to share his farming knowledge and lend a helping hand. Jim was interested in people and enjoyed visiting with his neighbours, friends and family. He liked to hear about the activities of his grandchildren and great-grandchildren, help them out when he could, tease them a bit and have a treat for them. In 2006 Jim and Anne sold the farm to their grandson Sean. They continued to live in their farm home until the summer of 2011. Declining health brought a move into the Hiawatha Homes in Nokomis for Jim and a move to a private care home for Anne. Jim moved to the Nokomis Health Centre in April 2012. Jim was predeceased by his mother (1971); father (1991); brothers Bud (1988), Mac (1993), Dunc (1993), Russ (1997) and Bill (2010); sisters Minnie (1995), Flo (1997) and Nell (1999). He is survived by his wife Anne; daughter Janice (Doug) Edwards and their family: Erin (Allen) Stephen, Emma, James, Luke and Rory; Sean (Angela), Hunter and Tanner; Colin (Janelle), Cole, Allie and Mckenna; Eric (Julie), Finley and Griffin; daughter Myrna Hendry; daughter Linda Hendry (Les Zawadzki), Anna and Katherine; daughter Heather (Kevin) Roske, Graham and Aislinn. His sisters Doris Fritzler, Gladys (Zell) Peterman and Enid Wishart; sister-in-law Dolores Hendry; many nieces, nephews and friends will also remember him. Cremation. A graveside service was held at the Nokomis Cemetery on Saturday, October 6th at 2:00 p.m. led by the Reverend Linsell Hurd. When he left home at seventeen years of age worked as hired help for different farmers. In 1945, he was married to Freda Fritzler. He bought, then moved to the Cheetam farm. He and his father, too, had many happy experiences, working closely together at the business of farming, Mac took time out to accompany him to sports activities, coaching both ball and hockey in his early years. Mac loved and took a great interest in all young people. In his leisure time, he attended and supported minor hockey and ball. Curling was his favourite sport, as well as fishing and hunting. When he was unable to participate in curling he was there watching and commentating. He tried to follow all the senior hockey in the area. Mac was a loving, caring, kind father and husband, always putting them first and wanting the best for them. He enjoyed a good game of cards or cribbage with his friends at the Senior Centre. He liked to sing especially with the choir. He had great sense of humour and a keen wit. After twenty years on the farm the family built a new home in the town of Nokomis. The road to the farm was impassible for the school bus in the winter months. Mac's interest in the operation of the farm continued when he was active there until the last several weeks of his life. HICKS – Olive Margaret Hicks (nee Huston) passed away on October 4, 2005 at MSA General Hospital in Abbotsford, BC. Olive Margaret (Huston) Hicks was born on October 7, 1912 in Virden, MB, the third child of seven born to Sam and Matilda (Worthy) Huston. During her school years she lived in Moosomin, Moose Jaw, North Battleford and Saskatoon. While still a student she worked at the Metropolitan Store in Saskatoon. After completing her high school, she continued to work at that same store for 12 years. In 1941, she applied for a wartime job and took a course at the school for Gun & Carriage Examiners and upon graduation she was stationed in Ontario and Quebec. She found this an interesting vocation with many new experiences. After the war, she returned to Saskatoon and worked as a social worker until her marriage. On December 12, 1946 Olive married Gordon Hicks. They resided in the community of Nokomis, Saskatchewan. They had two children: Elaine Ann and Judith Margaret. They provided a happy, loving home for their children. In the summer of 2000, Olive moved to Abbotsford, BC where she resided at Menno Pavilion. Church and singing were an important part of her life. She was always singing in choirs, performing both duets with her sister and solos. As a child she belonged to Girl Guides and this stimulated her interest as an adult to lead Brownies. She was also a Home Craft 4-H leader for a short time. For 22 years she was a director of the Nokomis Agricultural Society and was made an Honorary Life Member in 1987. She joined the Women's Institute in 1949, serving as president, secretary and treasurer locally; and within the district she served as district secretary. She was secretary-treasurer of the Nokomis Cemetery

Committee for 20 plus years. Olive's interests included flower arranging, drapery making, reupholstering, sewing, knitting, crocheting, needlepoint, ceramics, refinishing furniture, baking and travelling. She was always resourceful, for example, she once covered her upstairs bedroom floor with wood patterned wallpaper and then Varathaned it, it looked beautiful! Olive was an avid gardener. In 1949, when Nokomis was having its first local fair since the end of World War II, she entered her first exhibit. She chose Delphiniums in a bouquet of cut flowers and won first prize. This was her first of over 40 years of entering exhibits in the country fair. We will remember her sense of humour, she was always fun to be around and always willing to laugh with others, as well as at herself. She had a special, gentle way of encouraging others. She was a peacemaker. Her siblings would fondly speak of the special closeness they felt to her. It was expressed not only by their words but also by the loving look they got when they spoke of her. Olive said the happiest days of her life were on the farm in Saskatchewan. Her love of nature, gardening and design were expressed in her beautiful garden and farmyard. In her memoirs, Olive recalled her grandmother Huston as a fair, kind and loving person. And these too are fitting words that could be used to describe Olive. HORBUL – Doris May Horbul (nee McGinn) was born in South Porcupine, ON, on May 31, 1922. She was the third child of Myrtle and John McGinn. She had eight siblings, seven brothers and a sister. Doris passed away, at the age of 86 years, on Sunday, January 4, 2009 at Watrous Union Hospital in Watrous, SK. After graduating, Doris was very proud to receive her Registered Nurse at the Ottawa General Hospital. She moved to Nelson, BC, where she applied her trade. From there she went to Winnipeg, MB. She returned home to work in South Porcupine where she met Mike Horbul. They were married July 31, 1947. In 1949 they moved to Nokomis, SK, where they ran a family owned restaurant with Mike's brother, Tony. They called the cafe "Mike's Sportsmens Cafe". They were famous for their steak, hot hamburger sandwiches, pies and for having the most delicious soft ice cream. Cooking ducks during hunting season was another speciality. They retired from the cafe in 1979. Doris was predeceased by her husband of 50 years, Mike (1997); her parents and her husband's parents; infant daughter Mary (1954); grandsons, Garrett Horbul (2002) and John Horbul (2008); as well as six brothers, George, John, Lawrence, Arnold, Stuart and Jim McGinn; her sisters-in-law Zora Tapping, Joan McGinn, Barb McGinn and nephew Terry McGinn. Doris was a very hard worker, working 16-hour days in the cafe with only Christmas Day and New Years off. All the family had a good picture of her life because she liked to talk about all the stories that were a part of her life. She was a wonderful storyteller. She enjoyed visiting with family and friends, watching TV with an eye on what was going on in the world, knitting, playing cards, and preparing a great meal. A day didn't go by without reading a book. She was very involved with her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. All the staff that worked at the cafe were considered family as well. Having survived cancer in 1980 she was a very positive person proud that she had lived such an unexpectedly long life. She will be missed. HORBUL – Mary Horbul was born on October 19, 1918 in Fillmore, Saskatchewan. She was the third of four children born to John and Anna Horbul. Her father was a railroad man so she spent her youth living in many towns in Sask., Alberta and British Columbia. The family finally settled when she was in her teens in Nokomis, SK. Her mother

arranged for her to learn how to keep books from a man that did that for a living in Nokomis. She moved to Toronto in the early 1940's and worked there as a bookkeeper with various companies in downtown Toronto. She was noted as someone who did her job well and I doubt you could find anyone who was more conscientious. After her retirement she continued to live in downtown Toronto and when she became ill in 2002 she moved to a nursing home in Don Mills, ON and then to another nursing home in Oshawa ON. She passed away on December 13, 2009 in Oshawa. During her working life she started to travel the world and this continued after her retirement in the early 1980's. She very much enjoyed all the travelling she did and was so interested in all the places and people she met. She would just light up when she was telling you about her travels. She was an avid bridge player and got many hours of enjoyment from playing. She loved following politics and had some pretty clear views of what was right and what was wrong. The Prime Ministers office will miss her calls. I am sure she was one of the Toronto Blue Jays biggest fans and when she was well never missed a game on TV. She loved telling and hearing a good joke. She never married or had a family of her own but she had eight nieces and nephews. When my two brothers and sister and I were growing up in Nokomis we always looked forward to her annual visits. They will always be a special memory to us. She was predeceased by her parents, John and Anna; sister, Zora (Tom) Tapping; brother, Mike (Doris) Horbul. She is survived by her brother, Tony (Fern) Horbul and their children, Judy, Jim, Debbie, and Karen. She is also survived by the children of the late Mike and Doris Horbul Michael, Doug, Allan and Patti. A special thank you to the Hillside Terraces Nursing Home in Oshawa for looking after her so well. A thank you as well to her great friends Donna Emiljanowicz, Lorna Thaxter, and Neil Bradley and their spouses for the care and support during the last difficult years in Mary's life. Her interment will be in Nokomis Cemetery at a later date.

In 1971 they moved to Nokomis where they have been farming. Dorothea worked part-time in the Co-op grocery store, but after the birth of their daughter Jennifer in 1974 she devoted most of her time to taking care of her family. As time permitted she gradually became more involved with the community, serving on the boards of several organizations; Hospital Auxillary, Skating Club, Donor's Choice, Agricultural Society, Catholic Women's League, Museum, local school board and the Recreation Centre. She also found time to help out with bingo games, ladies softball teams and the Last Mountain Gymkhana Club. Dorothea joined the Catholic Church in 1983 and was active in the Parish. JAMIESON – Bert Ireland Jamieson. It is with sadness we announce the passing of Bert Ireland Jamieson, Sunday, May 2, 2010. He will be mourned by his son John; daughter Jean (husband Darwin Hayes and his daughters Kim and Shannon); grandsons Michael, Christopher, David and Robert and their families including 16 great grandchildren; Bert's twin brother Ken Jamieson and his wife Margaret and their family; the family of his deceased older brother, Lloyd Jamieson; as well as friends Blake, Margot, and James Stephenson and their parents Anne and John Stephenson and many other long time friends. Born November 28, 1915, in Nokomis, Saskatchewan, to James and Marie Ellen (Mina) Jamieson. Bert was the older of the twins (by about 8 minutes) and was always complaining that Ken never listened to him as the "older and wiser" brother. Their birth mother, Mina, died when they were only 7 years old. Their stepmother, Mabel (Taylor) Jamieson, raised them afterwards. Bert grew up in Nokomis in the home their father had built in 1910, and completed his high school in Nokomis. One of Bert's earliest musical memories was when he and Ken entered and sang a duet in a music festival in Nokomis. They bragged about coming in first but alas, they were the only ones who entered. However that was the beginning of a long life full of music. Bert spent three years studying voice under Madame Helen Davis Sherry after he arrived in Saskatoon in the late 1930's. Bert's first "job" was walking up and down the streets of Nokomis with his brother, Ken, one holding a large flag printed with "Auction Sale Today" while the other rang a bell. Their Dad was the town auctioneer. After high school Bert moved to Saskatoon and worked as a janitor while he completed a Saskatoon Business College course. He joined Knox United Church, along with his two brothers, on April 2, 1936 the same day as his soon-to-be wife, Margaret Harrison. Bert holds some record having been a loyal member of the Knox Church Choir for 72 years. Margaret was organist at Knox Church from 1963 to 1983 and together they provided music for 100's of weddings, funerals, nursing homes, worship services, Rotary and other club events even in Bermuda and Hawaii on holiday trips. Bert enlisted in the Air Force in 1942 and went to BC for training in radar. He received a three-day leave and returned to marry Margaret on February 5, 1942, before leaving for overseas where he and Ken served together as radar technicians serving in India, Burma, North Africa and Italy before returning home on August 10, 1945. I always remember him saying how most of the troops knelt down and kissed the ground when they arrived back in Canada. That was quite a way to spend the first years of ones married life but it was a firm foundation as Bert and Margaret were married for almost 60 years and had an amazing life together. After the War Bert went to the University of Saskatchewan graduating in Electrical Engineering in 1949. He worked for Bowman Brothers until starting his own business, Heating Engineering Installations Ltd. in 1953. Margaret worked with him as receptionist, bookkeeper and secretary from 1965 until he sold the business in 1981. Bert was very active in the Rotary club for close to 50 years. He and Jack Byers provided the music (and Bert's often corny jokes) at the Monday meetings for decades. In 1983 they were jointly awarded the Rotarian of the Year for their contributions. Throughout his life he was very active in many aspects of church life at Knox serving on the board and Bert and Margaret received the 1980 Knox Stewardship Award for their contributions. After they sold the business they were free to do more traveling, camping with the Happy Wanderers Trailer Club, and yet more music. They had their faithful dog, Mandy, who could be encouraged to sing with them. Mandy appeared with Bert and Margaret on local television one time, singing on cue, certainly a highlight of their musical career. Bert's wife Margaret predeceased him in 2002 a few days before their 60th wedding anniversary. All who knew him will sadly miss Papa's friendly smile and happy humorous nature. The family thanks Sunnyside Adventist Care Centre for their care and kindness to Bert in his final years, and all the many friends who visited him there from time to time as well as all his friends at The Franklin where he lived from 2001 to 2008. Memorial service to celebrate Bert's life will be held Thursday, May 13, 2010 at 1:30 p.m. at Knox United Church (838 Spadina Crescent East). Officiating will be Rev. Brian Maitland..

Nokomis, Sk. June 4, 1909

JAMIESON – Duncan. On Friday last Duncan Jamieson was missed by some members of his family between 9 and 10 o'clock at night, but it was not until 2 o'clock in the morning that the fire bell was rung and the alarm given that he could not be found. Mrs. Jamieson was staying at their farm seven miles out of town with the younger son George and it was thought that he had gone there, as inquiry had elicited the information that he had purchased a couple of books to take to his wife. However, when George returned from town his father was not at the farm, and becoming uneasy he and his mother immediately came to town and finding Mr. Jamieson still absent became thoroughly alarmed. Very shortly after the ringing of the bell every available rig in town was requisitioned for the search, and the start made. The whole country, west, south-west and north-west, for a distance of about eighteen miles was scoured but no trace was found of the missing man. When the last searcher came in without any clue there was little hope of his being found alive, as he was an elderly man and had been failing in health lately, and it had been raining for eight or ten hours with a chilly north-east wind blowing. A consultation was held and it was decided to search the banks of all the sloughs. This was done with the result that the deceased was found within a mile of his farm. The body was examined and then brought to town and awaited the arrival of Coroner Warren who in company with the four doctors have held an autopsy. After hearing all the evidence the jury gave the verdict that death was due to exhaustion and drowning. The funeral took place on Tuesday afternoon from the hospital. A very large crowd from the country and town was present, the business places having been closed as a mark of respect for the dead, and the bereaved family. The remains were interred in the new cemetery. Several very pretty floral tributes were placed on the casket, notably one from the Ladies' Congregational Society of the Presbyterian Church, and one from the bible class of which he was the teacher. The wreath from the citizens was very beautiful indeed. The service was conducted by Rev. J. Doney, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, of which deceased was a life long member, Rev. W. Eltom and Rev. A. C. Calder of the Methodist and Anglican Churches respectively. Deceased was born in Tullibody, Sterlingshire, Scotland, October 25, 1843. He came to Canada in the spring of 1892 and settled at Napinka, Man. Three years ago he came to Nokomis and engaged in farming with his sons. Ythanbank, the name given their farm soon became known for its hospitality, and was a haven of refuge to the early homesteaders. Deceased was a graduate of Edinburgh university and held the degrees of M.A. and F.E.I.S. Prior to coming to Canada he was a school teacher,. At the time of his death he was Seceretary-treasurer of the Nokomis School District and of the Local Improvement District. He leaves a wife and four children to mourn his death, Mrs. A. McKirdy, James and George, Nokomis and Mrs. L. F. Walton, Vancouver.

JAMIESON – George Herbert D. The death of George H. D. Jamieson, age 81 years of Nokomis, Sask., a pioneer resident of the province, occurred in a local hospital on January 9, 1966. He was a member of the Session of the Nokomis United Church and was superintendent of the Sunday School for many years. He was a member of the Nokomis Town Council for a number of years. A member of the Richfarms Loyal Orange Lodge. Mr. Jamieson was a past Grand Secretary and an Honorary Past Grand Master of the Grand Orange Lodge of Saskatchewan. He was a Past Master and Life Member of Philathea Lodge No. 133 A. F. and A. M. and a Past Patron of Nokomis Chapter No. 56 O.E.S. Interment will take place in the family plot in Nokomis Cemetery.

JAMIESON – Isabella (nee Ireland). The death of Mrs. Duncan Jamieson, at the ripe age of 81 years, 10 months, 28 days, occurred at the home of her son, George H. D., on Monday morning May 6, 1929. Mrs. Jamieson, who had not been in very good health, suffered a stroke on April 27, and was not able to talk after. Although not unexpected her death cast a gloom over the entire community, for she was known and loved by all. The funeral took place in the United Church, Nokomis, yesterday afternoon, the Rev. J. W. Robinson officiating and the last remains were laid to rest in Nokomis Cemetery. The large number of floral tributes testified to the esteem in which deceased was held in the community. The late Mrs. Duncan Jamieson was born at Ellon, Aberdeenshire, Scotland on June 8th, 1847, and was one of the pioneers of the district, coming over from Scotland 37 years ago. She reached Brandon on June 8 (her birthday) 1892 and lived in the Melita district till 1906. Following her sons J. I. and George, who homesteaded in Nokomis district in 1904, she took up land with her husband 5 miles straight west of town in 1906. It was there that the third post office was established in the district called "Ythenbank". At that time the mail arrived by rural route from Strasbourg, then the end of the steel. The late Mrs. Jamieson was particularly clever as an artist and delighted to paint flowers and animals. Every year she has been a large exhibitor in the Fine Arts class at Nokomis Agricultural Fair always winning a considerable number of prizes. She was laid to rest yesterday in the Nokomis Cemetery, which will soon be beautiful with the flowers and foliage she so loved to paint. She leaves to mourn her loss two sons and two daughters: Mrs. Alex McKirdy of Chilliwach, B.C.; Mrs. L. F. Walton of Camrose, Alta.; J. I. and George H. D. of Nokomis.

JAMIESON – James Ireland. In the death of James I. Jamieson, which occurred on December 6th, 1955 the Town of Nokomis lost a valued citizen, one who had occupied top positions in numerous organizations over a full half century. The funeral service was held in the United Church on Thursday, December 8, with members of the Philathea Lodge and several visiting Masons in attendance. Rev. R. W. Swann conducted the service, with Mr. G. H. Hummel, Past Grand Master, conducting the Masonic rites. Casket bearers were Messrs. Merlin Johns-ton, Morley Braithwaite, Wilmot Johnston, W. A. Mason, Gordon Simpson and Allan C. Nichol. Burial was made in Nokomis cemetery. James Ireland Jamieson was born in Lundie Scotland, on September 27, 1878. He came to Canada with his parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Jamieson, in 1892 and they settled at Melita, Manitoba. In 1904 the Jamieson family moved to the Viola district, five miles west of Nokomis three years before the townsite was surveyed. Deceased homesteaded the NE 26-29-23, while his father and brother (George) homesteaded across the road on the S1/2 of 36. During the early years the Jamieson home was the centre of the community and many young people gathered there on Sundays and week nights to enjoy a singsong and lunch. Ythanbank post office was also located in the Jamieson residence and homesteaders from a large area came there to receive and dispatch mail. During their farming career the Jamieson Bros. became widely known as importers of purebred Clydesdale horses and Shorthorn cattle. When Nokomis was established in 1908, the late J. I. Jamieson was elected to the first Council of the town. In partnership with his brother-in-law, Alex McKirdy, they were appointed Massey-Harris agents and carried on a successful business in that line until 1920. Deceased became widely known as an auctioneer, and having an above average memory for names and faces, he was highly successful as a salesman. Mr. Jamieson was secretary-treasurer of Nokomis School District for some 34 years and town clerk for 20 years, holding both positions up to the time of his death. The late J. I. Jamieson was a Past Master of Philathea Lodge No. 133, A.F. & A.M., a member of Saskatoon Preceptory No. 55 and of Wa Wa Temple, A.A.O.N M.S., Regina. He was Recording Elder of Nokomis United Church for many years. It is of interest to note that, through the years, many visitors to the United Church found their way after the evening service to the friendly home of Mr. and Mrs. Jamieson, just across the street. Besides his widow, the former Mabel Taylor, the late James I. Jamieson is survived by three sons: Lloyd, Kenneth and Bert Jamieson, all of Saskatoon; two sisters: Mrs. Walton, North Burnaby, B.C., and Mrs. Alex McKirdy, Chilliwack, B.C.; and one brother, George H. D. Jamieson, Nokomis. They will have the sympathy of many readers of this newspaper.

He took a leave of absence from the job for 4 years when he enlisted in the Royal Canadian Air Force in 1941, in WWII with his twin brother, Bert. They travelled overseas as Radar Technicians and saw action in India, Italy, Burma and North Africa. Ken was involved with his church his entire life, first in Nokomis and then in Saskatoon at Knox Westminster and finally Grace Westminster United Church. He was a soloist and a choir member, was a Chairman of the Board of Trustees, ran the nursery with Margaret and was on numerous committees receiving special recognition in 2004, for a lifetime of service to the church. He led many singsongs with Margaret accompanying him on the piano. He was also Chairman of the Board for St. Andrew's College in the 1960's. He loved recreational bridge, curling, golfing, travelling with Margaret, friends and symphony performances. He exemplified consideration for his wife Margaret, right to his last days, and held values for honesty, dependability and kindness. With dignity, he endured a painful war injury for over 65 years, never complaining and trying not to let it hinder his activities. LITWIN – Pastor Adam Litwin. Again a Pioneer-Missions-worker was called to the upper Kingdom. Br. Adam Litwin, who began his mission activity in the year 1903 in western Canada, was born on the 17th

July, 1858 in Warsaw, Poland. Trained as a teacher, he worked in that profession up to the year 1893. On the 8th of October 1886, he was honoured to God. As an eager reader of the scriptures he soon uncovered the Biblical baptizing truth. By Pastor Heinrich Assmann he was baptized on the 12th, of October 1891. A special calling to tell others of the redemption in Jesus induced him to give up school teaching and completely dedicate himself to the mission service. In the year 1893 he was employed as a mission worker in the congregation in Rypin, Poland. On 8 April 1898 Br. Litwin was ordained as a Pastor. With his family he followed other emigrants and came to Winnipeg, Canada, on 24 March 1903. Here in the new country he started his mission activity, and worked as a Travelling Pastor in the province of Manitoba from 1903 to 1906. On 1 April 1906 he took on the work as Pastor to Nokomis and area. Much pioneering work needed to be done. In the year 1914 Brother Litwin followed the call of the Sutherland-Congregation. Later he served the congregations of Gsturah, Glidden, Esk, and Lockwood. Up to the year 1923, Br. Litwin was in the active mission service. He often served thereafter at other places with the message of the Cross. Our brother married on the 28th, May, 1881, Sister Susanna Grahn, who stood beside him steadfastly and bore the burden and hardship as a Preacher's Wife. In the month of January this year, death tore this faithful helper from his side. Afterwards Br. Litwin lost all desire and joyfulness, and fell to the Earth. He waited now only for the hour, when he might go home to be with the Lord. The song: "When at last I am at home" was particularly dear to him and 71 years Pilgrimage, brother and sister Litwin were together for life. 12 children were given to them. Before him three children went to the Lord in eternity. They had Daughters: Emilie Schunke, Natalie Hoffman, Lydia Miller, Olga Buchholz and Wanda Felske; four sons: Emil, Otto, Oscar and Ernst; three daughters-in-law, four sons-in-law, 31 grandchildren and 23 great-grandchildren. Father Litwin was always vigorous and loved to attend the service. In later times his hearing was nearly completely taken away. That made his life lonely. He was, however, so grateful that he could read still. Recently he was living with his daughter and son-in-law, and on Sunday, the 23, March, he was in the hospital, and Monday morning, the 24 March, 1952, the weary soul of the gentleman was received by his father. Thus he reached the beautiful age of 93 years, 8 months and 7 days. Two years before, Br. Litwin asked Br. E. P. Wahl to be available, having known him for many years. The Council allowed Br Wahl to take time off from his Bible School duties to officiate the funeral service. Luke 2, 29-30 served as the funeral text. The signatory led the mourning service. RICHTER – Adelheid Agnes Richter (nee Krueger) May 23, 1927 – July 25, 2008, was born to Julius and Adeline Krueger (nee Felberg) in Trutenau, East Prussia, Germany. She grew up on a farm with two sisters (Gertrude and Naomi) and one brother (Udo). Adelheid received all of her education in Trutenau. She experienced the terrible war years which brought death of family members, the destruction of her home and the loss of her homeland. Having to flee her home near the end of the war, she lived for two years behind barbed wire in a refugee camp in Denmark. Upon returning to Germany she spent four years learning the hand weaving trade. In June of 1951, Adelheid, sister Gertrude and brother Udo emigrated to Canada. Sister Naomi stayed in Germany with their father Julius. They came to Nokomis where they lived with their aunt and uncle Alex and Johanna (Jenny) Richter. Adelheid and Gertrude went to Vancouver where they stayed with their uncle, the Rev. Albert Felberg. After a short while she returned to Nokomis and would eventually marry Erwin Richter on the 12th of December, 1952. They purchased the former W. Halstead farm where they would make their home for the next 50 years until they retired and moved into Nokomis. They were blessed with two children, daughter Doris and son Roland. Adelheid loved the farm and worked side by side with Erwin. She enjoyed the solitude of the farm and spent many of her leisure hours pursuing her favorite hobby, painting. She also enjoyed her chickens, the cattle, the various dogs they had throughout their farming life and of course innumerable cats. She enjoyed baking as well, while cooking was surprisingly not her favorite thing to do, which you would never have suspected if you have ever sat at her table. After becoming a Grandma, her favorite obsession was her granddaughters, who were doted on and spoiled but were also given guidance and advice. Adelheid accepted the Lord Jesus as her personal saviour as a young girl, and when in Vancouver was baptised by her uncle, the Rev. Felberg. She became a member of the Nokomis Baptist Church where she served faithfully. She taught Sunday School for many years, participated in the choir, fed and watered large numbers of the Young People's Group and in her later years kept the Sunday School well supplied with a constant stream of homemade cookies. She also prayed diligently for her children and grandchildren. After struggling with health issues for a number of years, she eventually took up residence at the Nokomis Health Center where, on a beautiful July afternoon, at the age of 81 years, she passed away very peacefully, surrounded by her family. As an adult she continued to remain in close touch with her family through visits, letters and phone calls. Evelyn took great pride in the accomplishments of her daughters, as well as those of each nephew and niece. In 1975 Bob and Evelyn semi-retired to Saskatoon. They resided in the Evergreens Condominiums for eleven years. Evelyn worked at the Sherbrooke Nursing Home for four years. In 1986 Bob and Evelyn took up full time residence in the town of Nokomis. Evelyn's life was enriched with the arrival of her grandchildren. They gave her great joy and happiness. Evelyn was a warm and caring person. She enjoyed the company of her family and friends. She loved to visit the Drop Inn Centre to play Chinese checkers or cards and enjoy a cup of tea with her friends. She struggled valiantly to overcome her illness and she gained strength from the support of her loving family and friends. Her faith in God gave her courage to accept each trial she faced. SHIELDS – John (Jack) Shields was born at Nokomis, Saskatchewan, on September 19, 1911, the eldest son of the late Florence and John Shields and passed away April 22, 1984, in Ottawa after a lengthy illness. After attending Newlands School for eight years, Jack stayed home to help his dad on the farm. On June 10, 1936 he married Agnes King of Tate, a union which gave rise to one son. A survivor of the depression thirties, Jack became interested in the various facets of the cooperative movement. He served for many years on the Co-op Board, Credit Committee of the local Credit Union, Credit Society, Co-op Trust and was one of the founding Directors of the Co-op College in Saskatoon. Jack was an observant farmer taking pride in weed control coupled with high yields. He was one of the first to fertilize according to soil test recommendations and was also a cooperator with the Department of Soil Science Fertility Trials. In addition to his duties as husband, father and provider Jack was active in many community activities, serving on the local school board, R.M. Council, Wheat Pool, Agricultural Society and United Church board. His energies also contributed to construction of the local Curling club and the moving and renovations of the Community Hall. Upon retiring from the farm and in his twilight years, Jack was frustrated by ill health which eventually led to his passing. During these personally difficult days, he sincerely appreciated the support and encouragement from his wife, family and friends. His recent years were highlighted by the fellowship available at the Drop-In Centre. From the above it is evident that Jack was a great admirer of dedicated youth, their strength and their community involvement. From this stand point he was appreciative of their managerial qualities and encouraged the transfer of responsibilities from generation to generation. Yes, Jack will be missed by us all but, in passing he is relieved of his burdensome anxieties and is now resting peacefully with his maker. He is survived by one son, Jack A. and daughter-in-law Betty; four grandchildren Jacquelyn, Jill, Jenny and Jeff; brother Bob and wife Evelyn; sister Clarice and husband Charlie Watt; sister-in-law Alice; brother-in-law Ken King and wife Carolyn; nephews Ken and Wayne; nieces

SIMPSON – Lewis Everton (January 15, 1917 – August 28, 2007). Lewis was born in Nokomis in 1917 and passed away in Nokomis in 2007. He celebrated his 90th birthday in January 2007. In February 2007, he and Mary celebrated their 65th wedding anniversary. Lewis was predeceased by his parents Jack Simpson (1945) and Amelia Jane (1939), as well as all four of his siblings Mae Senton (1995), Gordon (1959), Orville (1960) and Cecil (1983). Lewis married Mary White on February 16, 1942 in Fort William, Ontario. Shortly thereafter, on June 2, 1942 he enlisted with the Royal Canadian Air Force as an Air Frame Mechanic. Until his discharge in 1945, he trained and served in many places across Canada, including Saskatoon; Brandon, MN; Vulcan, AB; Dafoe, SK; Victoria, BC; and Lethbridge, AB. After the war Lewis returned to live with his family at the Simpson family homestead farm located 12 miles west of Nokomis (fondly referred to as “the old farm”). There he pursued his passion for farming which would become his lifetime career. Lewis and his brothers purchased the land on the west side of Nokomis and Lewis built a new home. In the fall of 1947 he purchased his first new vehicle – a Chevrolet 1 ton truck for $ 1,635 from the Nokomis garage, travelled to Oshawa to pick it up and brought it back with a truck load of apples from the Niagara Valley! Following the blizzard-filled winter of 1947-48, Lewis, Mary and their children (Joan, Dennis and Lorne) moved to their new farm. Lewis was blessed with eight children: Joan (Arnold) Petracek; Dennis (Sylvia); Lorne (Jacquie); Ruth (Claude) McNichol; Sheila (Gordon) Bergstresser; Irene (Randy) Irvine; Paul (Jenny); Kathy (Craig) Rintoul; and further blessed with 23 grandchildren and 23 great-grandchildren: Francis (Karla) Cunningham and Kirsten, Donovan and Siobhan; Alan (Terry) Petracek and Alex; Julie (Brent) Effler and Jessyln and Miranda; Michael ;(Rhonda) Petracek and Brett and Madison; Alison (Jeff) Slabik and Kiara and Jarett; Marcel (Donna) Simpson and Tyson, Brett and Jaeden; Nichole (Jake) Andre and Dorian; Andrew (Tara) Simpson

Over the years, he was actively involved in the community, including being a member of the Royal Canadian Legion, the St. Patrick's Roman Catholic Church parish, and a board member of the Nokomis Credit Union. Many will recall his dedication and involvement with the Remembrance Day services in Nokomis. He also served as the Reeve of the Rural Municipality of Wreford for many years. In 1985, Mary and Lewis moved into Nokomis. In the fall of 2006 Lewis became a resident of the Nokomis Health Centre where he passed away on Tuesday, August 28, 2007. Some thoughts, quotes, memorable moments from the family: his tradition of saying grace at mealtime; his habits as a conservationist (a man slightly ahead of his time) of energy and water such as shutting off the lights and turning down the thermostat; his ingenious cost effective farming practices; a man of few words; a place for everything and everything in its place; a dedicated family man, loved and respected by all; always in our memories. Funeral service was held in Nokomis at St. Patrick's Catholic Church on Friday, August 31st at 2:00 p.m. with Father Peter Nguyen officiating and Angeline Wourms as organist. Nokomis Legion members served as honour guard and at the Nokomis Cemetery held their Last Post service for him. His ashes were interred in the plot amid the land he had farmed for many years. There, with the roar of the trains going by and the seasonal sounds of the combine and tractors as his sons continue to care for his land, may he rest in peace.

SIMPSON – Mary Jessie (nee White) Simpson passed away on August 7, 2009, at Lanigan, SK, at the age of 87 years. She was predeceased by her husband Lewis of 65 years in 2007. She is survived by her sister Margie (Clarence) Hoscheit and her eight children (spouses), 23 grandchildren (spouses) and 28 great-grandchildren. Mary was born in Nokomis, SK, on December 18, 1921. She married Lewis Everton Simpson on February 16, 1942 in Fort William, ON. They lived at the Simpson family homestead farm located 12 miles west of Nokomis. In 1948, they moved to their new farm located just west of Nokomis, and in 1985, moved into Nokomis. Mary was a lifelong teacher. She taught sewing lessons through the Carlton Trail Community College in the surrounding area and was a 4-H leader (sewing, cooking and gardening). She taught Catechism and judged at local fairs but her real abilities shone through in her ongoing daily teachings, first with her children and later with her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Mary was also a lifelong learner. Many marveled at her passion to learn ‘everything computer’ over the past decade, most recently connecting with her grandchildren and friends through Skype. She also had a keen interest in learning how to best live as a healthy senior and routinely researched health care issues through knowledgeable sources, including family, friends, magazines and the internet. Many that knew Mary were inspired by her strong family ties, including her ties with her ‘bridge family’. She was an avid bridge player. This lifelong passion began at home with her parents teaching her as a child. It became a more meaningful and significant pastime in her senior years. She made many friends playing bridge at the Senior's Centre, at tournaments in the region, and internationally through online bridge games. Family members recall trying to contact her in the days of dial-up internet service only to get a busy signal, and then realized that she was online 'gaming'! Mary had many other pastimes and interests throughout her life. She enjoyed traveling, including her trips to France and England; reading, including murder mysteries; gardening; canning; baking; sewing; competing at the Nokomis fair with her many wonderful baking entries, including breads, buns and pies; knitting; and playing bingo. Mary always kept herself busy and loved a good challenge (possibly something that comes from raising eight kids!). At the age of 85 she undertook an ambitious 'home makeover' project and completed it in record time. From replacing flooring and bathroom fixtures, to painting and buying new furniture pieces and accessories and sewing drapes, her diverse skills shone through. This is but one of many proud accomplishments in her lifetime. Over the years, Mary was actively involved in the community, including being a member of the CWL and Parish Council. She sat on several boards, including the Nokomis Agricultural Society, the Nokomis Recreation Board and the Parkland Lodge. Most recently she was a correspondent for the local paper, and the secretary-treasurer with the Nokomis Seniors' Centre. Mary was blessed with eight children: Joan (Arnold) Petracek; Dennis (Sylvia); Lorne (Jacquie); Ruth (Claude) McNichol; Sheila (Gordon) Bergstresser; Irene (Randy) Trvine; Paul (Jenny); and Kathy (Craig) Rintoul; and further blessed with 23 grandchildren and 28 great-grandchildren: Francis (Karla) Cunningham and Kirsten, Donovan and Siobhan; Alan (Terry) Petracek and Alex; Julie Effler and Jessyln and Miranda; Michael (Rhonda) Petracek and Brett and Madison; Alison (Jeff) Slabik and Kiara and Jarett; Marcel (Donna) Simpson and Tyson, Brett and Jaeden; Nichole (Jake) Andre and Dorian and Wyatt; Andrew (Tara) Simpson and Avery and Violet; David (Danielle) Simpson and Zander; Penny (Shawn) Thibault and Matteo and Ollie; Chad Simpson; Jennifer (Geoff) Bedard and Josh and Karlee; Judy (Mike) Elder and Cassidi, Keanan and Klay; Jake (Terra) McNichol and Camden and Jase; Trevor Bergstresser and Kelly; Trent Bergstresser; Todd Bergstresser; Christina Irvine; Tristan Irvine; Casey Simpson;

Jasmine Simpson; Jonathan Rintoul; and Derek Rintoul. Mary will be most fondly remembered for her commitment to her family and friends, and her unconditional love for them all. Rest in Peace. A funeral service was held at St. Patrick's Roman Catholic Church in Nokomis, SK, on Friday, August 14, 2009 at 2:00 p.m. Officiant was Rev. Father Peter. Urnbearer was David Simpson. THOMSON – Linda Irene (nee Graham). Linda Irene Thomson's struggle with multiple myeloma ended on January 15, 2010. Linda was born on April 30, 1949 in Canora, SK, and learned to love family, animals and the land, with the guidance of her parents Robert and Jean Graham and the encouragement of her siblings Margaret, Myrtle, Verna, Bob and Reg. She attended, without enthusiasm, Chain-of-Lakes and Invermay schools, but her interests were clearly elsewhere – most often in farming activities. Baling beat literature every time. Linda married Graham Thomson on July 6, 1968, and together they raised four kids and roamed the countryside. Moving more than a dozen times in the first 10 years of marriage meant that Linda developed an uncanny talent for packing and kept track of time by remembering who was in diapers at what house. Every house was full of friends and every yard trimmed to within an inch of its life. The moves ended in 1977 when the family settled in Nokomis. Settling in Nokomis meant involvement in community activities, most of which involved the kids. Scouts, hockey, ball, school sports, ropings and driving the school bus kept her on the road for most of the '80s, but in 1987 she found her own niche. Completing her home care/special care aide course meant that she could now focus her considerable energy on caring for the most vulnerable among us with dignity and compassion. Her work at Silver Heights Special Care Home in Raymore, Nokomis Health Centre and home care was a source of joy and fulfillment. It is what she was meant to do. Having children at a young age meant that Linda was able to be a young and active grandmother. A stop at the house meant photos and stories of the latest exploits of Grady, Raina, Victoria, Dillon and Shane. The only thing that made her happier than their birth was when they stayed at Grandma's house and followed her to NHC to meet the staffer to the farm to meet a new foal (her four-legged grandchildren) or played in the yard while Grandma gardened. Linda is remembered by a grateful family including: her husband Graham; children Monty, Roily (Angie), Sherri and Shawna (Clayton); grandchildren Grady and Raina Thomson and Victoria, Dillon and Shane Sanborn; mother Jean; sisters Margaret (Bob), Myrtle (Leonard) and Verna (Walter); brother Reg; sisters-in-law Gail (Bob) and Glenelda (Ray); and a herd of beloved nieces, nephews and friends. Linda was predeceased by: her dad Robert Graham; brother Bob Graham; parents-in-law Ida and William Thomson and brothers-in-law Steve Panchyk and Jim McCutcheon. A memorial service was held at the Nokomis Centennial Hall on January 18, 2010, conducted by ministers Jim Atcheson, Ruth Sinclair and Agnes Smiley. Guest book attendants were Karen Lee and Sandy Lewis. David Herauf, Stacey Oliver and Vern Bexson were the ushers. Eulogy was given by Sandy Lewis and Myrtle Pilkey. Janice Cobb was pianist and special music was by Braden Pihrag, Karen McCrae, Lynn Higgins and Sherrie Gullacher.

WALSH – Richard C. Walsh died Tuesday, February 23, 2010 in Kalamazoo. Richard and Loretta (Edwards) Walsh celebrated the birth of their son, Richard, on Saturday, July 12th, 1929. Richard, who often went by Dick, was born in Nokomis, Saskatchewan, Canada, as the second of four children in his family, which included siblings Leo, Eileen, and Frank. Dick left home when he was around 12 years old when his family was moved to Ontario, and he wanted to remain in Saskatchewan. He attended school at Notre Dame of Canada in Wilcox, Sask, and graduated in 1947. Notre Dame of Canada shaped his life. He truly loved the school and its people. He attempted to have his 3 sons attend the school in middle of nowhere Saskatchewan. His youngest son Richard, graduated from Notre Dame of Canada, his son Daniel schooled there but graduated from Otsego High School. Dick continued his education at Assumption College in Windsor, graduating in 1950. After one year of law school at Detroit College of Law, Dick took the offer of the U.S government permitting him to be a U.S. citizen upon 2 years of military service. He enlisted and served as part of the 82nd Airborne Division during the Korean Conflict. In the service he became a surveyor. But, he loved jumping out of airplanes. He marveled that he got extra pay to do it. He fulfilled his duty, serving from 1950 through 1952 and thereafter, in the reserves. During his army stint, Dick was stationed at Fort Drum, New York. He met the young girl who would forever hold the key to his heart. Her name was Virginia Piazza. They met at a USO dance. She was an Italian girl from Watertown, New York. There was an immediate attraction between Dick (age 23) and Virginia (age 21) that neither could deny. When they met she was engaged to another man. After dating for a short time, the couple was married on November 28, 1953, in her hometown of Watertown. With little financial resources, they settled in Detroit, Michigan, where Dick began working for Household Finance Company. Dick and Virginia started a family right away. Apparently, there was a little 'competition' between he and his brother Frank as to who would have the first grandchild for their parents. Virginia often joked that they were so poor that they could not afford toys for the kids (Linda and Pat) so, the kids played with the cockroaches instead! Dick and Virginia were blessed with five children: Linda, Pat, Diana, Daniel and Richard. Dick was a supportive father who was very involved with his children's athletic endeavors. He attended the sporting events no matter what state or country. He coached hockey for the youngest, Richard, when he was over 50 years old. Dick was most known for was his strong work ethic. He attended Detroit College of Law and earned his degree while working full-time at the finance company with two young children. In 1959, Household Finance moved him to Chesterfield, Indiana, where his daughter Diana (nee, Diane) was born. From there, the family moved back to Dearborn Heights with another Household Finance transfer. Dick opened his first law office a couple blocks from their home in Dearborn Heights located above a party store on Van Born. The family then moved to Kalamazoo, Michigan, in 1962. Dick and Virginia believed Kalamazoo would be a great place to raise their children. Dick got a job with a local attorney doing collection work. Thereafter, he worked as an assistant city attorney for the City of Portage with an office in the Kalamazoo Building. His practice moved from there to the Hanselman Building across the street and, then to what was the ISB building. He was proud to boast that he and his partners were all Catholics and they were the only all catholic law firm in town. In 1973, Dick and Virginia purchased the building at the corner of Cedar and Rose Streets. He retired in 1998 when his son purchased the business, although according to Dick, he still worked. He wintered in Florida and during the summers, his work schedule consisted of breakfast with the boys, checking his office messages, coffee with another group of guys, checking messages again, then lunch, if it was a nice day he'd play golf. He loved playing golf. But, his true passion was flying. Dick was a licensed pilot who had both his instrument and aerobatic licenses. He flew the family to various vacation destinations. He loved hockey. He had season tickets for the Kalamazoo Wings from the time they began. Dick also had connections with many hockey professionals from his alma mater, Notre Dame of Canada. Dick spent time with his beloved wife, Virginia. They often vacationed without (away from) the children. They enjoyed going to either the Florida Gulf Coast Keys or Brownsville, Texas. Usually they flew a four-seater plane with another couple. He suffered the first of six heart attacks at age 48. As a result, he could not be licensed to fly. After a number of years, he would be able to get his license back. Within 6 months of that date he suffered another heart attack and, piloted no more. After retirement Dick and Virginia had a condo in New Smyrna Beach, Florida. They sold that and bought a new condo on Daytona Beach. When Virginia began suffering from Alzheimer's disease, they moved back to Kalamazoo so that Virginia would feel more at home. Even though, he would generally work between 60 and 80 hours per week, he believed in giving his time and money to many charitable organizations. He was involved with the Jaycees, Kalamazoo AMBUCS, and the Elks BPOE #50. In his later years, Dick enjoyed reading just about anything. He was partial to fictional works about lawyers, and he also read a lot of historical books. In many ways, Richard Walsh was truly one-of-a-kind. He worked hard throughout his life and had a diverse career path, too. As a young man living on his own since age 12 he shoveled coal at Notre Dame for tuition, room and board. He was a trapper and sold the pelts. He worked at Banff Resort as a porter for a summer. He worked as an usher in a theater. He was the eternal optimist who was Irish in every way. He was very lucky even won a trip through Kroger Bingo to anywhere he wanted to go, so he and Virginia picked Hong-Kong, China (he kept telling her they were going to win!). Most recently, last season, he won the drawing of season ticket holders to be an assistant coach for a game, an Irishman through and through. Dick leaves behind principles that are so simple, yet so hard to master including a strong work ethic, diligence, and a belief in making the most of every day. As his family and friends now say goodbye, they will be forever grateful for the many moments they were given to share with such a remarkable man. Dick will be dearly missed. Dick's family includes his wife, Virginia Walsh, 4 children: Linda (Al) Ikeda, Pat Walsh, Diana (Gary) Christopher and Daniel Walsh; 10 grandchildren; 1 great-grandchild; 2 siblings: Eileen Steele and Frank (Geraldine) Walsh and many nieces and nephews. Dick was preceded in death by a son Richard S. Walsh, and a brother, Leo Walsh. A memorial mass will be celebrated Saturday, March 6, 2010 at 10:00 a.m., St. Augustine Cathedral. A luncheon will follow at the Blue Dolphin.
